There is a period of poetic and mellow charm in the latter days those who finally hold the seas to make his 1937 model last another of autumn, often called Indian Summer. According to tradition, the indolent Indians of old times depended upon these days of late fall to complete the tardy harvesting of their crops.

The poet Longfellow thus described these days of late fall: "The wind is soft and low. It wafts to us the odor of forest leaves, that hang peace, then Germany is determined. It seems like the rich old age of some corrupt politi grand man or woman who has performed great deeds, and who now rests quietly contemplating the things that have been done.

The sun still shines with genial light. It gives life and cheer, without the scorching fierceness of August. With many or most of the trees bare of foliage, you can see long distances and get distant views that were hidden in the fall tide of summer. Let us take advantage of these days all we can, before old winter chills us with his freezing blasts, and drives us to the shelter of the fireside.

Chest Helps Lad Keep Chin Up

The Community Chest is real, very real to young George Isaac bright-eyed youth whose confinement to New Castle hospital (one of last year's Chest campaign. A year ago a painful hip bone infection struck him, but since, expert medical treatment has almost conquered the ailment. Here George steps out at the hospital with the helpful "ambulator" (it helps you walk) just before he was released to go home. He still must visit the hospital weekly, but he's fast on the road to recovery. The 1939 Chest drive for $60,000 opens Monday, October 16.

Change In Turkey Date Recalls Role During Civil War will do for our distraught country." And President Lincoln obliged.

Woman Magazine Editor Hoped To End Civil Strife With Fixed Date

By MARIE MANNING

WASHINGTON. - As long F. D. R. is in the White House, re tail merchants, calander makers and football men may rest assured that Thanksgiving Day will occur on the Third Thursday in November instead of the fourth. Repercussions about the date still find their way to first pages in spite of what's going on in Europe. And while there is joy on the part of the merchants, who asked for the change in the first place, the football men are still pouting.

Rolls Of Unskilled Labor By Move

PHILADELPHIA MAN TO HEAD CAMPAIGN

By RAYMOND WILCOVE

International News Service Staff Correspondent HARRISBURG, Oct. 12.-A new state program to put the unemployed to work, backed by Gov. Arthur H. James and a legislative committee and headed by a distinguished businessman serving without pay, today was being whipped into final the program, earlier characterized Martha, when the motorist struck, as a "give-a-job" campaign, would killing her almost instantly

"The program will get underway shortly," said the governor. "The budget of expenses for the program has been arranged but full details of has been selected as a member of

To Be Put Into Operation

Governor James, who had earlier revealed that the program was under consideration, formally announced it would be put into operation following a conference with cabinet and legislative officials, which Fuller attended.

Present at the conference were. in addition to Fuller, Secretary of Commerce Richard P. Brown, Secretary of Labor and Industry Lewis G. Hines, Secretary of Commerce Howard L. Russell, Budget Director Edward B. Logan, speaker of the house Ellwood J. Turner, president protem of the senate Frederick T. Gelder, Republican House Leader Robert E. Woodside, Jr., Majority Senate Leader G. Mason Owlett, and Sen. Frederick L. Homsher, R.

Broadly speaking, the plan envisages a campaign to induce Pennsylvania businessmen and property owners to take on additional men during the current business boom.

The governor has stated that he feared the present business upsurge would benefit mostly skilled workmen and not unskilled laborers, who compose the largest number on relief. The forthcoming program is designed to take up the slack. -BUY IN NEW CASTLE-

FROM ME TO YOU

For the past two or three years a great deal of talk has been made about the High School Band. Talk that has been of great help to and paid for . . . the drum majorettes have been added to the band and other small improvements . . . The Band plays at all footba!l

games and we believe that the game would be rather tiresome without the band and its color. However there are those on the Athletic Council that think that the Band is a useless instrument and that the game would be just as interesting or maybe more so without their help. However we disagree with those members who think in this track . . . and we believe that the majority of the football fans will agree that without a Band a football game is rather flat. This Saturday as the Band goes on the field there will be a great surprise in store for those in the stands . . . be

Although as sure as we say it the warm weather will return . .

but a cool snappy day to our way of thinking is a much better day for this time of year than a warm coatless day. And just a perfect day is ideal for a group to sit about in nice warm tweeds and witness a horse show. You folks of New Castle and vicinity will have that opportunity one week from Saturday when the Marshall

Farm in Wampum will present a fall benefit horse show. Really folks if you are interested in horse flesh you will see some of the finest at this show. For particulars watch this newspaper.

MORTIMER AND CHARLIE

HULLO, GOT COMPANY

Recent discovery of the world's most perfectly preserved skull of the Neanderthal period reveals, according to Prof. Sergio Sergi of the Royal university, Rome, Italy, that the Neanderthal man of 70,000 to 80,000 years ago walked like a man and did not have an ape-like slouch as hitherto believed. Photos above show Professor Sergi pointing to a fracture in the skull which he said resulted in Mr. Neanderthal's death, and the Monte Circeo cave (50 miles from Rome) where the skull was found. The entrance to the cave is
